The Job Interview

1 Warm Up Work with a partner.

What was the first interview you ever had? Did you pass?

2 Reading Read and fill in the spaces.

Susan Foyle works in Human Resources at ABC Tech. She is interviewing Andrew Thompson, who has applied for a position as a programmer.

Susan: Thank you, Andrew, for coming today. So, you could find the office all right?

Andrew: Yes – I checked the directions online, so there weren't any problems.

Susan: Well, to start with, could you tell me why you would like to work at ABC Tech?

Andrew: Certainly. I've been in my current job for about five years, and although it's going well, I'm looking for more of a ..... ABC is a much larger operation than where I am now, and your products are renowned for being on the cutting edge of technology. It'd like to be a part of that.

Susan: Your technical skills certainly look ..... What other skills could you bring to this position?

Andrew: Let's see. Well, at my current company I've worked both on my own and as part of a team. The ..... of projects means that teamwork, and communication skills are very important.

Susan: I see. Now, as you know, we have some very ..... clients. As deadlines approach, there can be a great deal of pressure. How do you think you would deal with this?

Andrew: To be honest, I enjoy the pressure that comes from meeting deadlines. In my current position, there's often pressure. But successfully achieving challenging goals makes the work rewarding. While I feel the pressure, I don't feel stressed. I think the two things are different.

Susan: Right. Now at this point, I'd like to introduce a co-worker of mine – Tom Fairfax. He's going to be asking you some questions related to your programming skills...

Choose From:  impressive  complexity  high-profile  challenge

3 Comprehension Answer the questions below.

- 1) How long has Andrew worked for his current employer?
- 2) Why does he want to change employer?
- 3) What skills does he have?
- 4) Do you think he's a good candidate for the position?

12. Tell me about a marketing project that you brought in on time and under budget.
Focus on your planning and organizing skills to get the best return on the marketing budget. Detail what controls were put in place to track and stay on top of expenditure and how planners were adjusted when necessary. Discuss your ability to react quickly and accurately to meet new demands and constraints.
13. What are the qualities of useful market segments?
A market segment must have the following qualities: Segments must have enough profit potential to justify developing and marketing. Consumer must have heterogeneous needs for the product. Segmented consumer needs must be homogeneous. Company must be able to reach a segment with its planned efforts. Must be able to measure characteristics & needs of consumers to establish groups.
14. Tell me about a brand that you think is an example of good marketing.
Identify one of your favorite brands and its positioning and target. In other words, who is the brand trying to reach and what are they trying to sell them. Discuss how the brand uses themarketing variables to support its positioning using the 4 P's (product, price, place and promotion) and give examples about how your brand delivers against each.

4. Describe a typical work week for this position?

Interviewers expect a candidate for employment to discuss what they do while they are working in detail. Before you answer, consider the position you are applying for and how your current or past positions relate to it. The more you can connect your past experience with the job opening, the more successful you will be at answering the questions.

It should be obvious that it's not a good idea to talk about non-work related activities that you do on company time, but, I've had applicants tell me how they are often late because they have to drive a child to school or like to take a long lunch break to work at the gym.

Keep your answers focused on work and show the interviewer that you're organized ("The first thing I do on Monday morning is check my voicemail and email, then I prioritize my activities for the week.") and efficient.

5. What is your biggest weakness?

No one likes to answer this question because it requires a very delicate balance. You simply can't lie and say you don't have one; you can't trick the interviewer by offering up a personal weakness that is really a strength ("Sometimes, I work too much and don't maintain a work-life balance."), and you shouldn't be so honest that you throw yourself under the bus ("I'm not a morning person so I'm working on getting to the office on time.")

Think of a small flaw like "I sometimes get sidetracked by small details", "I am occasionally not as patient as I should be with subordinates or co-workers who do not understand my ideas", or "I am still somewhat nervous and uncomfortable with my public-speaking skills and would like to give more presentations and talk in front of others or in meetings." Add that you are aware of the problem and you are doing your best to correct it by taking a course of action.

6. Why should we hire you as this position?

This is the part where you link your skills, experience, education and your personality to the job itself. This is why you need to be utterly familiar with the job description as well as the company culture. Remember though, it's best to back them up with actual examples of say, how you are a good team player. It is possible that you may not have as much skills, experience or qualifications as the other candidates. What then, will set you apart from the rest? Energy and passion might. People are attracted to someone who is charismatic, who show immense amount of energy when they talk, and who love what it is that they do. As you explain your compatibility with the job and company, be sure to portray yourself as that motivated, confident and energetic person, ever-ready to commit to the cause of the company.

22) Do your skills match this job or another job more closely?
I feel my skills are best fit for this job.

23) What has disappointed you about a job?
I once felt that I was not being given enough challenges to work on. I was a bit disappointed because I was so eager to go for more.

24) If you were hiring a person for this job, what would you look for?
I would look into two essential things: the ability to do the job right and the proper attitude to do it. Skills without the right attitude will not contribute to a productive output.

25) What role do you tend to play in a team?
I tend to be versatile when it comes to being a team player. I can act as a leader, an assistant, a communicator, a secretary, whatever role that will ensure the success of the team. That's because understanding the different roles will allow each player to take on the role of the other in times of need.

26) What was the most difficult decision for you made?
It was a time when I had to choose between joining a group of employees protesting some issues in the company, and staying away from the issue. I ended up being a mediator between the employees and our immediate supervisor, and I was glad I made that decision because it all ended well and without further conflicts in the work place.

27) Are you willing to make sacrifices for this company?
I would be willing to do that to the best of my ability. I can manage personal matters on my own without causing conflicts when management needs me most. However, I will not compromise on my values.

28) What qualities do you look for in a boss?
I look into my boss as a person who can easily relate with me, can make firm decisions, and is transparent. A boss with a sense of humor would also be a delightful idea.

29) Are you applying in other companies as well?
Yes, I have submitted my applications to some of the best companies like [...]. Above all, my priority and hope is that I be able to land a job in your company.
