

Index to Content

- p. 3 The Power and the Weakness of Direct Mail
- p. 6 The offer
- p. 8 Benefits are the key to response
- p. 9 Support Copy
- p. 10 5 Ways to make your offer more appealing
- p. 11 4 ways to give your offer a kiss of death
- p. 13 Making your offer relevant
- p. 15 Media and formats you can use in direct response advertising
- p. 17 Envelope Mailings
- p. 18 Other types of mailing formats
- p. 21 The Sales Letter
- p. 23 12 approaches to writing an effective lead sentence
- p. 24 A few sample letter openings
- p. 27 A sales letter strategy that can't lose
- p. 27 7 ways to make your letter scannable
- p. 28 Tips on making your letter more effective
- p. 31 Make the most of the PS
- p. 33 How and when to use a lift letter
- p. 34 Ways to make your copy more effective
- p. 35 Headlines — the key to getting your copy read
- p. 36 Financial Services
- p. 38 The Brochure
- p. 39 Design
- p. 40 9 design tips to increase response
- p. 41 12 things designers do in direct mail sure to reduce response
- p. 42 Typography — the vital key to get your copy read
- p. 44 Tips on using colour
- p. 45 The Reply or Order Form
- p. 47 Testing - The key to maximizing results
- p. 48 Tips on marketing to seniors
- p. 48 60 Tips on Copy and Design for Direct Mailers
- p. 54 60 Tips — Part 2
- p. 63 The Psychology of Direct Mail
- p. 65 E-Commerce – The future of direct response
- p. 82 Who Says Long Copy Doesn't Work Online?
- p. 98 Recommended Reading